

Beneficiary Registration Instructions for Bond Transactions

To facilitate smooth settlement of bond transactions executed through MeraDhan - an Online Bond Platform Provider (OBPP) by BondNest Capital India Securities Private Limited, you are required to register the clearing account as a beneficiary in your bank account.

Timing Requirement

The beneficiary must be added at least 24 hours prior to executing a transaction, as banks may impose an activation/cooling period for newly added payees.

For Payments of Rs 2 Lakh and above (via RTGS only)

Beneficiary Name	NSE CLEARING LIMITED
Bank name	Reserve Bank Of India
IFSC	XNSE0000001
Account No	8715106
Branch	Mumbai

For payments via NEFT / RTGS (RTGS to be used for payments of Rs. 2 Lakh and above)

Beneficiary Name	NSE CLEARING LIMITED
Bank name	HDFC Bank
IFSC	HDFC0000060
Account No	CBRIC1XXXXXXXXXX (Replace XXXXXXXXXXXX with Buyer PAN Number)

If regular beneficiary addition is not available (e.g. A/c no. CBRIC1XXXXXXXXXX):

Certain banks may not allow this account to be added under the normal "Add Payee" option. In such cases, please add the account through:

- Corporate Payment Module
- eCMS Facility
- Institutional / Corporate Beneficiary option (as available in your bank)

Important Reminders:

- Use Your Registered Bank: Funds must only be transferred from the bank account currently registered with your MeraDhan profile. Third-party transfers will be rejected/refunded.
- Payment Modes: NEFT, RTGS, and Bank Transfers

One-Time Activity

This is a one-time registration and the same beneficiary can be used for all future bond transactions executed through MeraDhan.

Failure to pre-register the beneficiary may result in delays in fund transfer and impact transaction timelines.
